BIG IDEAS

- ✪ Listening and viewing with intent supports our understanding and acquisition of French.
- ✪ We can have meaningful conversation in French about things that are important to us.
- ✪ We can share our experiences and perspectives through stories.
- ✪ Francophone creative works are expressions of Francophone cultures.
- ✪ Acquiring French provides opportunities to explore our own cultural identity from a new perspective.

EVALUATION

You will be evaluated with both formative and summative assessment through a variety of means – self/peer assessment, quizzes, writing, skits, dialogues, listening, tests etc.

Course Work: 80% (reading, speaking, writing, listening)

Final Exam/Project: 20%

EFFORT

- § BE RESPECTFUL to yourself, to teachers, to others and to property.
- § SPEAK FRENCH as much as possible in class, at home, with your friends. Practice. Practice. Practice.
- § PARTICIPATE Be involved in the lesson, stay on task, take some risks and support others as they take risks – this is how we learn. Listen and be attentive.
- § Do your HOMEWORK: Get it done and get it in on time. If you don't have «homework», take time to review daily. If you miss a day, find out what you missed and get that done too!
- § BE PREPARED. Come to class with everything you need - books, pens, pencils, erasers, homework etc.
- § BE SELF-AWARE. Ask for help if you need it or if you are unsure. Ask questions. Come see me!

ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY: You are responsible for any work and/or tests missed on days that you are away. Please find out what you need to do (from your teachers or another student) and arrange a time to get it done.

CELL PHONES, COMPUTERS, AND OTHER ELECTRONIC DEVICES: You may listen to music while working or use it as a tool for learning. It may not be used for selfies, photos, socializing or texting. If you are unable to use the device appropriately, it may be taken away.

FOOD AND DRINK: Water is permitted in class in closed bottles.

RESUBMISSIONS: Assignments submitted on time may be edited/redone for an improved grade
