Raising the Bar

KINDNESS EMPATHY CONSCIENCE PATIENCE RESPECT

CHSS students are responsible for respecting the rights and dignity of others while being actively involved in owning their learning and social growth that reflect and promote our core values.

Communication

- Stop and think before reacting, while remaining calm, thoughtful and respectful.
- Show consideration by being an active respectful listener.
- Choose a positive response when faced with challenging situations.
- Use electronics appropriately and respectfully with others safety and privacy in mind.
- Respect the safety, privacy and reputation of others and yourself when communicating.

Personal Responsibility

- Make a personal commitment to demonstrate honesty, dignity, and pride in everything you do.
- Take pride in your school and surrounding community – keep it clean.
- Believe in yourself, set high expectations, and commit to do your best.
- Make good work habits your number one priority as a learner.
- Show responsibility by keeping commitments and making deadlines.

Respect

- Respect the right of others and yourself to learn.
- Model respectful and responsible behavior while representing our school.
- Treat others with common courtesy and respect, recognizing that we live in a diverse, multicultural society that puts human rights at the forefront of our actions, by not discriminating in any form including race, color, gender, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, and nationality.
- Recognize and share your personal strengths in our community.

“Laugh a little and have fun. Laugh at yourself when you can.”
